

2010 ABBEY MEDIEVAL

FESTIVAL

SUNDAY 11 JULY

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

VISIT THE ABBEY MUSEUM – FREE!

Your ticket to the Abbey Medieval Festival allows you free entrance to the Abbey Museum throughout the weekend or until the end of 2010 on presentation of your wristband.

The Abbey Museum of Art and Archaeology is one of Australia's most exciting and dynamic museums, with fabulous collections spanning the last half million years of humankind. These collections cover prehistory, ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, Greece and Rome, the Middle Ages and Renaissance and Baroque Europe, the Islamic world, India, China and Japan showcasing ceramics, glass, stained glass, metalwork, sculpture, paintings, manuscripts and rare books.

Don't miss this opportunity to see this remarkable collection of fine arts and archaeology from around the world.

PRIZES TO BE WON!

Visit the Abbey Medieval Festival Shop

Don't forget to purchase your unique memento of this fantastic event. The exciting products include medieval mugs, historical jewellery, T-Shirts, books, postcards, collectors spoons, beautiful drink coasters, children's medieval helmet and much more...

Exiting The Festival

Patrons are encouraged to exit the festival grounds and turn RIGHT up Old Toorbul Point Road, left onto the Toorbul/Donnybrook Road and then either immediately left again onto the Bruce Highway to head south or cross the highway and into the roundabout to head north. This will prevent long delays accessing the Bribie Island Road.
